GLAD TO GREET

On Monday, June 10, the school welcomed back its students with a vibrant and festive celebration, complete with a shower of flowers, popping balloons, and lively music and dance. The students were thrilled to receive a warm and cheerful welcome from their teachers, setting the tone for a joyful and exciting new academic year.

Following the warm welcome, Principal Dr. Pradap Felix inspired the students with a motivational address, encouraging them to embrace the numerous opportunities offered by the school to nurture their growth, explore their potential, and shape their future with confidence and courage.

With warmth and compassion, the teachers gently guided the new students, helping them settle in and feel comfortable in their new surroundings, ensuring a happy and stress-free first day for all the fresh faces on the Kings Campus.

KG Orientation: Beginning the Journey Together

On Thursday, June 13, an informative parents' orientation was held for UKG, and on Friday, June 14, a similar session was conducted for Pre KG and LKG. The orientation sessions enlightened parents about the kindergarten's teaching methodology and the personalized care and attention each child would receive at Kings Kindergarten, assuring them of a nurturing environment for their little ones.

School Assembly: Inspiring Minds and Hearts

- The teachers of Classes I to VIII kicked off the school reopening assembly with a lively and humorous play that celebrated individuality and encouraged students to embrace their unique qualities, setting a positive tone for the new academic year.
- On Wednesday, June 12, Mrs. Valliammai's Class II B took center stage to host the primary and middle school assembly, delighting the audience with a charming class presentation and an energetic performance of the action song "Peel Banana", which had everyone joining in on the fun.
- On the same day, Mr. Saravana Perumal's Class XI A1 took the stage to host the senior school assembly, presenting a thought-provoking skit that shed light on the persisting issue of child labor, highlighting the harsh realities faced by many young lives worldwide.

- On Friday, June 14, Mrs. Reka's Class IV A and Mrs. Deepa's Class XI A2 hosted the primary and senior school assemblies, respectively, both centered on the Islamic festival of Bakrid. The students presented engaging skits that eloquently explained the significance and story behind the celebration, fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation of the occasion.
- Class II A, led by Mrs. Pon Sobiya, hosted a vibrant junior school assembly on June 18, performing the upbeat song 'Clap Your Hands' with infectious enthusiasm.
- Also on June 18, Mrs. Thanalaxmi's Class VII C hosted the middle school assembly, presenting a powerful mime that conveyed the inspiring message that perseverance and determination are essential to overcoming failures and achieving success.
- On Wednesday, June 19, Mrs. Esakkiammal's Class III B kicked off the day with a lively assembly, performing the energetic action song "If You Are Happy and You Know It... Clap Your Hands" with enthusiastic dance moves. Later, Mrs. Roseline's Class X B took the stage, mesmerizing the senior school assembly with a soulful musical performance of Naomi Scott's hit song "Speechless", showcasing their vocal talents and leaving the audience spellbound.
- On Thursday, June 20, Miss Mary Thomas's Class I C delighted the junior school assembly with a charming performance of the Hindi action song "Haathi Raja", showcasing their sweet voices and energetic movements. Meanwhile, Mr. Arun Sam's Class VII B hosted the middle school assembly, commemorating World Refugee Day with a poignant narration of "The Little Refugee". The students brought the story to life with enthusiastic enactments, creatively dressing up as the characters and captivating the audience.
- On Saturday, June 22, Mrs. Ruby's Class VII A took the stage to host the middle school assembly, presenting an engaging skit and informative speech that highlighted the history and spirit of the Olympics, inspiring their peers with the values of teamwork, perseverance, and excellence.

Announcement of the Students Council Election Date

Mr. Joshua, Vice Principal of Non-Academics, announced that the 2024 Students' Council Election will be held on June 24, following the finalization of the nominees.

Investiture Ceremony

The programme commenced with the invocation of divine blessings, beginning with School Prayer Song followed by Prayer and School Anthem. The programme was presided over by Mrs. Agnes, Director, Kings Schools.

The dignitaries handed over the flags to the new leaders, symbolizing the transfer of responsibility and entrusting them with the duties and privileges of their respective positions. With great pride, the captains accepted their badges, each adorned with their respective House flags. It was a moment of immense pride for these emerging leaders.

Mr. Joshua administered the oath, wherein the leaders pledged to lead by example, nurturing an atmosphere of respect, inclusivity, and collaboration, ensuring that every voice is not only heard but also valued and committed to upholding the school's values and principles and vowed to contribute positively to its continuous growth and success.

Mrs. Agnes in her speech highlighted that leaders are chosen for their unique strengths and must lead with humility, love, and care, embodying these qualities in their actions and decisions.

The unforgettable investiture ceremony drew to a close, brimming with hope and anticipation for the journey ahead for these young leaders. The event concluded with the Cultural Secretary delivering a vote of thanks, followed by the singing of the Indian National Anthem.
